ARRIVAL PROCEDURES

PASSENGERS AND CREW ARRIVALS

A Universal Aviation staff member will greet passengers and crew upon arrival at Beja International Airport (LPBJ/BYJ). Passengers and crew will be transported in an executive van through the disembarkation gate, followed by a short walk to the airport exit. If necessary, staff will escort them through customs and immigration, a process typically taking no more than 5-10 minutes from the aircraft to outside the airport.

Universal Aviation staff will handle unloading and transporting all luggage to the designated ground transport vehicles.

PASSENGERS WITH DISABILITIES

WHEELCHAIRS ARE AVAILABLE
A wheelchair is available upon request. A Universal Aviation staff member will assist passengers with disabilities in deplaning and transporting them to their ground transport vehicle.

LUGGAGE

HANDLED BY UNIVERSAL STAFF
A Universal Aviation staff member will manage luggage handling from the aircraft to the transport vehicle. Customs officials may perform random scans of luggage. Passengers are required to accompany their luggage during this process, as mandated by Portuguese authorities. Luggage remains secure at all times.

PET ARRIVALS
